

Author: Carol Fishman Cohen
Photo Credit: Lynn Wayne Photography

Carol Fishman Cohen

Carol Fishman Cohen is an expert, speaker and consultant on the topic of career re-entry. She is the co-author of Back on the Career Track: A Guide for Stay-at-Home Moms Who Want to Return to Work (Warner Books, June 2007) and co-founder of career break connections company iRelaunch (www.iRelaunch.com). iRelaunch provides career reentry programming and strategies to employers, universities, organizations, and mid-career professionals in all stages of career break. iRelaunch was awarded the 2007 Workplace Innovations Award by the Women's Leadership Institute of Bentley College "for outstanding commitment to creating innovative workplace policies that help women achieve professional success".

Ms. Cohen, her co-author Vivian Steir Rabin, Back on the Career Track and iRelaunch are regularly featured in the national press, including Business Week, The Wall Street Journal, New York Times, the Christian Science Monitor, the Boston Globe, Fast Company, Oprah & Friends XM Satellite Radio, Family Circle and MSNBC.com. Both Ms. Cohen and Ms. Rabin resumed careers after multiyear career breaks. Graduates of Harvard Business School, they are frequent speakers at career re-entry events at universities, organizations, conferences and employers. Ms. Cohen lives in Newton, Massachusetts, with her husband and four children ages 12-18.