

Biography of Karen Moore Reynes
June 10, 2008

Karen Moore Reynes, served as an agricultural trade executive in Washington, DC for over fifteen years before marrying into the United States Air Force in 1998. While she has consulted on a variety of issues since then, Mrs. Reynes has been a full-time military spouse since 1999, serving the community as: Senior Mentor for the ACC Squadron Spouses Course, Senior Advisor and Steering Committee Member of the Osan Readiness Assistance Volunteer (RAV) Program; Advisor, Osan Officers' Spouses' Club, July 2005-2007; Advisor, Osan Enlisted Spouses' Club, July 2005-2007; Advisor, Osan Thrift Shop Advisory Council, July 2005-2007; President, MacDill Officers' Spouses' Club, May 2004-June 2005; Advisor, Eglin Officers' Spouses Club, 2001-2003; Program Chairman, Nellis Officers' Spouses' Club, 1999-2001; Advisor, Eglin Key Spouse Program; Certified Peer Counselor for Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM); Seminar Presenter, National War College, 1999; Industry Advisor, National War College China Project, 1999.

Ms. Reynes has an undergraduate degree in government and politics from the University of Maryland, 1983. She was a member of the Agricultural Technical Advisory Committee for Grains and Oilseeds, U.S. Department of Agriculture from 1994-1999. She is the recipient of several military spouse awards including membership in the Honorable Order of Molly Pitcher.

She is a certified sailor, having piloted sailboats on the U.S. East Coast, the Bahamas, and Greece. She has traveled to China, Taiwan, South Korea, Japan, the Philippines, Hong Kong, Singapore, South Africa, France, England, Switzerland, Greece, Canada, Mexico, Peru, Chile, Brazil, and Paraguay. She is the wife of Brigadier General Joseph Reynes, Jr. (USAF) and the mother of the remarkable Katharine, age 14.