

David L. Jerome

Mr. Jerome, a Principal at Booz Allen Hamilton, served as the Co-Chair of this years AFCEA Homeland Security Planning Committee. At Booz Allen Hamilton, Mr. Jerome leads the firms, 280 person Mission Assurance and Enterprise Resilience Practice which provides consulting services in the integrated concepts of security services, operational risk management, and resiliency to senior clients in both the government and commercial markets. Prior to joining Booz Allen Hamilton, Mr. Jerome served for twenty years in the Army as a counterintelligence officer responsible for providing support to the Nation's counterterrorist forces and in the Office of the Secretary of Defense where he developed policy and plans dealing with the Nation's response to catastrophic events.