

Doug Wagoner
SAIC Senior Vice President
General Manager, Homeland and Civilian Solutions Business Unit

Doug Wagoner is currently Senior Vice President and General Manager for the Homeland and Civilian Solutions Business Unit at SAIC. Doug is responsible for the development and execution of the business unit's strategic and tactical plans. The Homeland and Civilian Solutions business unit serves diverse client base primarily in the Civilian, Homeland Security and non-warfighter Defense Federal markets. The business unit has 2,700 employees.

Prior to joining SAIC, Doug was Senior Vice President and General Manager for Data Systems Analysts (DSA) where he led the Command and Control, Special Operations, and Intelligence business units. He also served as Vice President of Public Sector for ChoicePoint. Over a ten-year career at EDS, Doug held various executive positions in finance and business development in the Defense and Latin American business units.

Doug is very active in the federal IT community. He serves as a Board Member to the USO of Metropolitan DC and currently serves as Deputy Chairman of AFCEA's (Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association) prestigious Technical Committee. He founded and led ITAA's (Information Technology Association of America's) Committee on Intelligence, where he was instrumental in getting reform legislation passed in December of 2004 to enhance the nation's ability to clear personnel. Doug has testified on numerous occasions to the House and Senate on security-related issues.

Doug is a Federal Computer Week 'Fed 100' award winner in recognition of his leadership in the Federal IT marketplace. In 2005, he was selected as the Executive of the Year for businesses under $100M by Washington Technology magazine and GovCon

Doug has an MBA from Virginia Tech, has his undergraduate degree in finance from William and Mary, and has completed post-graduate work at the University of Virginia's Darden School of Business in M&A.